

Which magic?

- Pagan magic: a broad (Eastern) and very narrow (Western) field
 - In some ways the essence of Pagan worship involves magical happenstance
 - Runic magic is as close as we come
- Christian magic: the dominant form of magic written about (including Wicca)
- Or the innumerable forms of practice that we engage in all the time

What is magic?

- “Is the art or science of causing change in conformity with the will”
- “Every intentional act is magic”
- Prayer
- Theurgy (personal enlightenment/perfection through the invoking of god)
- Thaumaturgy (giveth certain order to make strange works, of the sense to be perceived and of men to be greatly wondered at...)
- Moving the gears of nature
- Raising and direction of mysterious natural energy
- Prestidigitation
